

Ronald E. Bolandi

Superintendent Search

Ronald E. Bolandi will lead the Superintendent Search for the Nutley Public Schools in 2022.

Bolandi served as Superintendent in the East Windsor Regional School District from 2004-2010 before officially retiring. He has also held positions as Superintendent in Piscataway, Chester, and Winslow Townships and as Assistant Superintendent in Middletown and Middlesex Borough.

Since retiring, he has done work as interim Superintendents in the Plainfield Public Schools, Montclair Public Schools, Bedminster Public Schools, Kearny Public Schools and Edison Township Public Schools, one of the largest K-12 school districts in the state with 17,000 students.

During his tenure in Montclair and Plainfield, Bolandi focused on initiatives including programming, tutoring, curriculum, administrative and lessening the student achievement gap. He has extensive experience in finance, supervising budgets of $200 million and construction projects totaling $250 million. In the area of evaluation and assessment, he has worked with staff to develop state-of-the-art programs which assist and improve direct instruction to enhance student achievement. In Piscataway, in conjunction with the teachers' association, they developed a state recognized model staff development program which was replicated in East Windsor Regional School District.

Bolandi has completed Superintendent searches in Edison, Bedminster, Alexandria, EWRD, Caldwell/West Caldwell and assisted in Montclair, Plainfield, Kearny, Cedar Grove, and Middletown.

His professional affiliations include New Jersey Association of School Administrators, American Association of School Administrators, Registered School Business Administrator International, New Jersey Association of School Business Administrators, American Association of School Business Administrators, and Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development.
